In discharging my duties as overseer of poor the past year, I have acted the best of my judgment. There have been three deaths, one being transient. I could not find as he had any residence. There has also been a family of three added to the list of poor, that have to be helped wholly by the town, two of them being old and feeble.

H. K. WHITE, Overseer of Poor, Clarendon.

The poor bill is $282.97, of which $79.00 has already been paid, leaving to be provided $203.97. This bill was handed in too late to come under proper heading.
